

How to Rent a Boat

The travel agency Kairos offers a variety of services and will answer in the shortest possible period giving the complete and detailed offer. We are able to offer not only a charter service, but also provide other services such as accommodation, transfers, excursions and much more.

Provided that you are well experienced and need no advice or suggestions, you can just send a short e-mail with your request in order to get an offer for charter just filling the form available clicking the „book now button“. You can add some other remarks as well. If you charter a boat for the first time and have no experience at all, please just note that you are requiring a daily rent with skipper. If the desired boat is not available, we will offer you a similar available boat.

The travel agency staff will send you the offer providing each detail from your request. Your next step would be to confirm the booking by sending an e-mail along with your personal data: name, address, passport number and fax number. The booking procedure requires then 30% to 50% of the total price to be deposited onto the agency account and the copy of payment sent by fax. The balance payment will be done on spot as well as the signature of the contract.

If you feel you are competent and could handle the boat yourself, then you need to possess a valid nautical certificate of competence in navigation and VHF license for reasons of safety (the use an operation of VHF radio) issued by the port authority, which are to be brought on board.

For all the boat a security deposit is required and its amount depends on the type of the boat (from 500 Euro up to 1000 Euro), which has to be given in cash or through pre-authorization by credit card on the day you'll pick up the boat. The same deposit will be repaid when you will be returning the boat if the boat is not damaged.
